Elgiva for Everyone

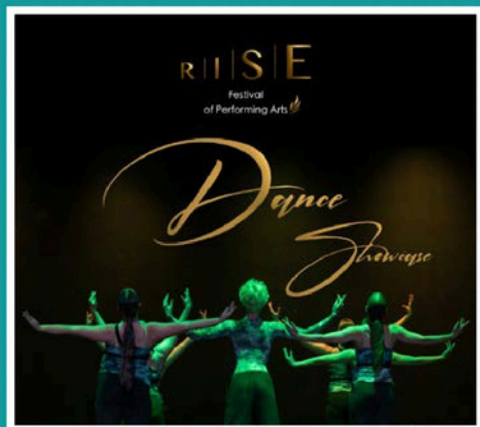

Hello Again – The Neil Diamond Songbook Friday 2nd October – 7.30pm

A world-class tribute celebrating six decades of sparkling hits, complete with a sensational live band and timeless, rockin' classics.

Ivo Graham: Orange Crush Sunday 4th October – 7.30pm

The endearingly-neurotic comedian brings his signature blend of sharp wit, self-deprecating humour and brilliant storytelling to the Elgiva stage.

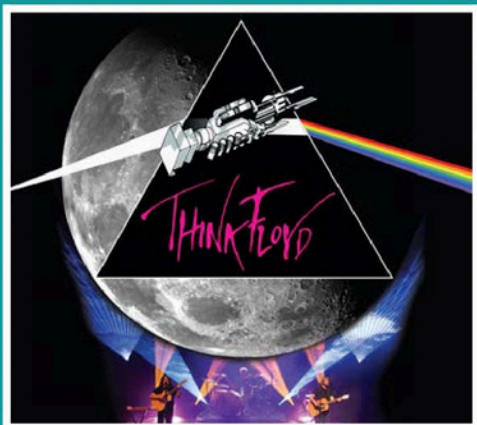

Rise Festival of Performing Arts Saturday 17th & Sunday 18th Oct – 6.30pm

A fantastic showcase highlighting the vibrant talents of young musical theatre performers aged seven to 25. All RISE!

Pressure Tuesday 20th October – 1.30pm & 8pm

Set in the tense days leading up to D-Day, this gripping drama delivers an intense, atmospheric look at the unsung figures who changed history.

Think Floyd

Friday 9th October – 7.30pm

The UK's definitive Pink Floyd tribute faithfully recreates the visual magnitude, soaring guitar solos and sonic brilliance of the rock legends.

Sound & Vision –

A Tribute to David Bowie

Saturday 10th October – 7.30pm

Powered by a world-class band, this high-energy show captures the cool style and legendary hits of the rock icon.

Jive Talkin'

Thursday 22nd October – 7.30pm

A disco-fuelled celebration of the Bee Gees packed with West End talent, live strings and uncanny family harmonies.

The Best In Comedy

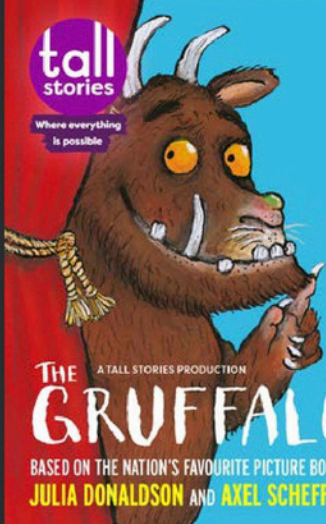

Friday 23rd October – 7.30pm

Top-tier stand-up returns with a star-studded line-up featuring the dazzling Sara Pascoe, Darren Harriott, Tom Ward and Maureen Younger.
